

“

Kingsley Players

Mother Goose flies in for a fabulous pantomime with Kingsley Players (24 – 27 January 2024)

Award-winning Kingsley Players are back on stage with a fabulous family pantomime 'The Adventures of Mother Goose' for five performances at the end of January.

Written by the group's own multi-talented musical director, William Arnold Ashbrook, the traditional comic tale of goodies and baddies transports audiences to Nursery Rhyme Land, where the evil Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Jasper Skiddleflint, supported by his two henchmen Scrubbs and Briggs, are raising everyone's taxes.

Poor Mother Goose is struggling to pay, so her enterprising family help by magically changing Gertrude the Goose into a golden egg-laying machine to save them all from penury and the evil chancellor's dastardly plans to kidnap her daughter Juliet.

Director Jo Oultram said: "I am delighted to be working with a fantastic cast of talented adults and children, who are bringing this wonderful traditional pantomime to life. The comedy script, surprising plot twists and foot-tapping tunes are the perfect antidote to the January blues.

"Kingsley Players first staged Arnold's brilliant pantomime back in 2006 and it has lost none of its sparkle. We invite everyone to leave the world's troubles behind and join us in Cragglepot Hall for a riotous performance to really raise the spirits."

'The Adventures of Mother Goose' will be on stage at Kingsley Theatre in Kingsley Community Centre, from Wednesday 24 to Saturday 27 January 2024, 7.30pm, with a Saturday matinee, 2.30pm.

Tickets cost £11, with £7 tickets available for students/children. These can be booked online at www.kingsleyplayers.co.uk or by ringing the box office on 07724 892154.